This book is to skimmed now;

The pictures are to be enjoyed, laughed at;

For the past is still too linked with the present. But when the mists of years
haze these days,

The Bluff

will serve as a torch to cut through to bring back perhaps a smile perhaps a tear but always . . .

"Sometimes"

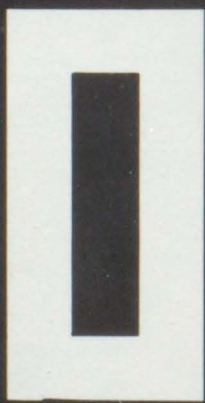

Sometimes, not often enough, we reflect upon those little things. And those thoughts always center around those we love. And I think about those people, who mean so much to me and for so many years have made me so very happy. And I count the times I have forgotten to say Thank-You and just how much I love them.

Juniors

What is a Junior?

Lori — A junior is someone who breaks their neck over prom, so that the senior will have something to remember.

Marla — How should I know, I'm just Vice-President!!

Julie — A Junior is a magazine salesman who is the backbone to the Junior-Senior Prom.

Cindy — A junior looks back at yesterday, looks forward to tomorrow, but today — lives and let live.

What Is a Freshman?

Tim Albers — An underclassman who's main interest the entire year is to tell the upperclassman where to go.

Debbie King — Someone who is just beginning 4 years of good and bad times; looking forward to making every minute worthwhile.

Angie Luna — Someone who has a special kind of determination to make each high school year as successful as possible.

Ronda Harrison — P.B.H.S.'s prized possession.

ADS

At the end of each year, it is time for many different things. It is a time for joy or a time for sorrow. It is a time to celebrate or a time to sit back and remember those special moments. For me, it is a time of appreciation. First, I must thank all of you who are a part of PBHS. Your individual purchases of the yearbook and the cooperation of our advertisers helped make this yearbook possible. I owe a great deal to the photographers who helped capture the good times in pictures. Additional thanks must go to the Bluff Staff for their great efforts in organizing this book of memories. I could not end without expressing my deepest gratitude to our sponsor, Mr. Bill Caputo. Without his patience and understanding this annual would not be possible.

IT IS OUR WISH TO SHOW YOU PBHS '79-'80!

There is no other teacher that can compare with him — he is a GREAT teacher. The class I'll miss the most is 1st hour Criminology and how Mr. Henson always scored on DA. Thanks for the memories kids. I'll remember you — Bad Girls — cause we are family.

CASE, CINDY — Hey Lu-Lu, remember "party" at the trailer. And getting lost in the cow pasture. Hey LH, UM, MW, KS — "Who's gonna drive." Oh, what about "Hot Blooded" at the fire. Hey BW and SD thanks for the lift. Hey EK, GD, RH, KF, DE, thanks for nothing. AF stay out of the yard. Hey LU-LU, "throw your cup." No, it's just REO. To RH, "A Man You'll never BE." Oh, J and J — Good luck, I hope you get the house decorated and furnished.

CASEY, DANNY — From the song, "Gonna be a Rock and Roll Singer" by AC-DC: You can stick your golden handshake, you can stick your silly rules, and all the other *%&#$@ that you teach the kids in school. Cause I ain't no fool!!! Gonna be a rock and roll singer.

CASEY, SUSAN — Well, Class of 80, it's here. When we were freshmen it seemed it would be an eternity, but the years flew right on by. Next year we have to start all over. I'll miss you bunch o nuts and will never forget the good times — the crazy band trips with Sooeey, Arelida and Deni Kay, the great parties, and generally making a fool of myself and have a good time. However, I'm anxious to go. Just think of all the people I WON'T have to ever see again! Good-bye PB . . . It's been fun!

CLANAHAN, KIM — Remember, KA — bumme or I guarantee it. LT — Monica where's the alarm clock. MM — that's funky looking. MH — Hey rubber-legs. TM — waiting outside B building at lunch. I'll miss you all. Sr. 80 get out there and go for it!!!

COLEMAN, MACHELL — Another year is done and it's the final one. I'll be sad, yet I'll be glad. But I'll thank God it's done.

I lost someone 2 years ago but only for a temporary time I know that when they return this summer my heart thoughts will mean even more. I only wish the separation from all of my friends here at PBHS could be that temporary, but why wish for the impossible. So I leave you with this thought. People so seldom say I love you, and then it's either too late or love goes, so when I tell you I love you, it doesn't mean I know you'll never go only that I wish you didn't have to . . . Laurence Craig-Green DANNER, JO — My Sr. year is finally here, I have waited for so long. This year has been the best. It is sad to be leaving familiar sights but I'll be glad to be out of school.
